There are no greater treasures than the highest human qualities such as compassion, courage and hope. Not even tragic accident or disaster can destroy such treasures of the heart.

Daisaku Ikeda

Right from childhood, our parents and teachers try to instill various good qualities in us. These qualities are known to be the true mark of a good human being. It is up to the individual to imbibe these in order to become a good person and to lead a happy life.

In today's fast-paced world, many of these human qualities are either low on priority or are forgotten by some people. When was the last time you actually helped a person by making an extra effort from your side? Do you have more friends on your social networking site rather than in reality? Here is a concise list of qualities to help you reach out to people on a personal level and be a good human being.
